

- One of the most utilized and valued services of ProQuest Dissertations & Theses is their ability to order a high-quality bound copy to mark their academic achievement.
- Authors from international schools have not historically ordered copies because their works were harvested or A4 size bound copies were not available
- We are looking for School partners to help us present Alumni Authors with this new purchase option, along with a 24% Author Discount Promotion.
- If you would like to join or learn more, please email your ProQuest Academic Relations contact

41% of Authors order 2 or more copies on average when presented the opportunity to purchase
